“ Joe DeTrano posted a condolence I am Joe DeTrano. Vinny Campion and I were classmates at Holy Redeemer School (HRS), from 1st grade to 8th grade. Since our last names were Campion and DeTrano, we were usually assigned seats near each other. I always liked Vinny. He was a great kid. I used to ask him questions about the schoolwork, because Vinny was smarter than me. Thanks to the continuing efforts of Mary Ann Hohensee in keeping the HRS Class of 1959 informed of Classmate News all these years, I am able to write my condolences now, more than 55 years later. Even as a kid, Vinny was a bit stocky in build. But usually, stocky kids are happier kids. So I remember Vinny as a happy kid, and his happy demeanor was contagious.

It was fun to be around Vinny. I am so, so sorry to learn about the passing of our HRS classmate, Vinny Campion.

My heart goes out to Vinny's wife, Fran, and the entire Campion family. I remember in February of 2012, Fran's email, "Still going strong" to the HRS group, citing Vinny's health challenges and bad luck with their house fire.

But now, Vinny doesn't have to worry about any problems, anymore. As we all believe, Vinny is in a better place, now.

Vinny is with God. His successful journey is now completed.

With the Grace of God, Fran and their family members must now continue on, until their life journeys are completed, and they will be together again. Vinny was a good kid in elementary school. And I'm sure that Vinny was just as good of a man during his adult years.

Rest in Peace, Vinny. You have earned it, and you deserve it. Since I have been living in Florida since 1977, I cannot attend Vinny's funeral on Monday, 04/25/2016

Your HRS friend,

Joe DeTrano

“ Tiffany posted a condolence My Fondest memories of Mr. Vinny was at Halloween time. I lived right across the street and he would always hid in the bushes and scare the kids. I'm now 34 years and I have moved out Freeport but at Halloween time I still go and tell my kids about the wonderful Halloween experiences at the Campions. It was not just Halloween it was all the holidays. Mr. Vinny was great sweet and caring man. May his soul rest in peace.
