“ Janice Basilicata posted a condolence DEAREST Vivian, Marie and I will miss your beautiful smile. How lovely to watch you as you walked into church with all your beautiful alfits! And what warmth we felt with Gary at your side always. How sad we were to hear of your passing. We know Jesus is taking your hand and giving you the peace and love he has for us all. Our prayers will be for you and Gary and the changes that you both will be adjusting to. We will miss you. And Gary with you. But we are rest assured the Lord has received you as his gift and will take great care of you. Love you guys forever. Janice and Marie Basilicata

“ Stephanie Hunter posted a condolence Vivian was our glue at Lucille Roberts. We all knew each other through Viv chatting (not that we didn't work out too!) She was an absolute true, compassionate warrior who brought love to everyone! We are all heartbroken and this world will never be as bright. Our very deepest condolences and heartfelt sorrow to everyone who will miss her as much as her Lucille Roberts friends!

“ Cheryl Mahoney posted a condolence I am deeply saddened for Vivian’s family, friends and her John Hancock family. Vivian was a friend to many at John Hancock and I’m proud to say I was one of them. We shared lots of laughs over the years (some at the expense of others), but it was all in genuine fun. Her laughter was contagious. I sincerely hope that your memories bring you comfort in the days ahead. Withy my deepest sympathy and love, Cheryl
