“ Kevin Sherman posted a condolence Willy was like a second father to me,
Since I got my first car as a teenager, while he was at Bellmore brake in Bellmore, up to my 40s at kees place in Merrick.
I have alot of great memories of him.
He was somebody I looked up to.
I the many conversations we had.
I will miss him.

“ Christine Aldridge posted a condolence Mrs Hasseck & Family, My deepest condolences over your loss of Willy, he was a good man, and he will be greatly missed by all of you and his friends. I'm so thankful that I could call him a friend, he was always so happy to talk to and him saying "It's All Good" I never heard him complain about anything. God Bless you all.
